I disagree celebrities don't make more money ~~than~~ Then models do But celebrities do enjoyment They bring to the public. Athletes make Money like other people that does actors, musicians, models, ~~but~~ They make same amount of money.
like celebrities play sports they are called athletes ~~some~~ ~~they~~ Play pro football and more, Models make up to lots of money but they all make same money but some has more money than other Some people think celebrities make more money than others but they are wrong they make same money as other, but some people don't know how much celebrities make some people that make less money as actors, musicians, models or athletes Some people are not smart.

Score Point: 1

This response reflects fundamental deficiencies in persuasive writing skills. The writer takes the position that celebrities do deserve the money they make. The writer cites each type of celebrity listed in the prompt. However, the information presented is minimal and the response is repetitive (make money). There is no evidence of organization. In addition, the response contains serious errors in usage and sentence structure.
